Bond Issue for Street Reconstruction Voted By Common Council

List of Streets to Be Rebuilt Included in Report of the Finance Committee

Mayor's Letter

Copy of the Resolution Adopted by B.P.W. Is Filed

The $95,000 bond issue for street reconstruction work in Kingston this spring and summer was unanimously approved at the special meeting of the Common Council held Tuesday evening, when the report of the Finance, Ways and Means committee included a list of streets to be rebuilt with the proceeds from the sale of bonds.

The aldermen also unanimously adopted an ordinance authorizing the bond issue.

At the regular meeting of the Common Council held last week, the bond issue failed adoption by the two-thirds vote necessary for passage, when the Republican minority in the council refused to vote favorably unless the Finance, Ways and Means committee report included a list of streets it was proposed to reconstruct. The committee's report adopted last night included the list of streets.

The council also unanimously approved the issuance of notes in anticipation of the bond sale so that the street program could proceed without interruption.

The special meeting last night had been called by Mayor W. F. Edelmuth to act upon the bond issue, which failed adoption last week.

Streets Included

The Finance, Ways and Means committee report, which was signed by all three members of the committee, Alderman Peter Simpson, Joseph Amato and Victor H. Roth, recommended that the ordinance creating the bond issue be adopted.

The list of streets to be reconstructed with the proceeds from the bond issue, as set forth in the report, are: Albany avenue, Boulder avenue, Broadway, Dock street, Elmendorf street, First avenue, Hasbrouck avenue, John street, Linderman avenue, Lucas avenue, Main street, North street, North Front street, West O'Reilly street, East Strand, West Strand, Second avenue, Third avenue and South Wall street.

Mayor's Communication

Mayor Edelmuth sent in a communication to the council regarding the bond sale, which was read. The mayor also included in his communication a copy of a resolution adopted by the Board of Public Works asking that a bond issue be created to defray the costs of reconstruction, and also a copy of a report filed with the board by Superintendent Ernest Steuding in which he listed the streets having "top priority" in the street rebuilding program.

Mayor Edelmuth in his communication wrote "Your honorable body on March 5, received my recommendation that you authorize an issuance of bonds to pay the cost of the work. After a week's delay, during which the superintendent of the Board of Public Works gave to the minority member of the Finance, Ways and Means Committee, the information he desired, you defeated the ordinance.

The minority of the council voted against the proposed bond issue and sought information already in the hands of the representative. You have before you tonight a report from the superintendent which specifies the streets proposed for improvement, the estimated cost and other information.

I am of the opinion that for the good of the city at large the minority members should join with the majority in enacting this ordinance.

As the information given you by the superintendent is not a part of the ordinance, the Board of Public Works will not be bound by the estimated costs prepared by the superintendent.

I believe that the $100,000 will suffice for the work undertaken this year."

$5,000 in Budget

By the unanimous action taken by the Common Council last night the sum of $100,000 will be expended on street reconstruction this year in Kingston. The bond issue is for $95,000, and the $5,000 needed to make up the $100,000 planned to be spent, is included in the city budget adopted in January by the Common Council.

Bridge Bill Is Passed

The state Assembly today unanimously passed the Wicks-Hatfield bill to authorize construction of the Hudson river bridge between Kingston and Rhinecliff, with interim ferry service.

The measure now goes to Governor Dewey for his signature.

The measure, already passed by the Senate authorizes the New York State Bridge Authority to increase its bond issue limit from $3,000,000 to $8,000,000 to finance the bridge. It was sponsored by Senator Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston and Assemblyman Ernest I. Hatfield of Hyde Park, Republicans.

Measures passed yesterday by the Assembly and sent to Governor Dewey would prohibit the abolition of tolls on any bridge under the authority's jurisdiction until the bonded debt of all bridges was removed, and remove from the law provisions limiting bond issues for ferry boats and terminals which would be replaced by the proposed bridge.

Wainwright Brands Army Critics as Un-American

Syracuse, N. Y., March 20 (P)—Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, hero of Bataan and Corregidor, today described soldier complaints against the Army's "caste system" as "close to mutinous conduct."

Accompanied by Mrs. Wainwright, the general came here from Fort Sam Houston, Tex., to spend a 10-day leave.

"In my opinion," the general told reporters, "the Army should be reasonably democratic. At the same time there has to be a gap between officers and enlisted men if there is to be discipline.

"At Corregidor that same gap existed. Without that gap Corregidor wouldn't have lasted five days."

"In some instances," he added, "the stand of complaining G.I.'s has been close to mutinous conduct. These critics are not typical American soldiers."

Wainwright also announced he would retire in August, 1947, under the Army's regulation calling for retirement at the age of 64.

Admits Writing Death Warrant for 2 Million

Berlin, March 20 (P)—The gassing of 2,000,000 Jews and other persons at the Oswiecim horror camp has been admitted in a signed statement given to British authorities by Rudolf Hoess, 46-year-old commandant of the camp, who was arrested on March 8.

Hoess, who was found hiding out on a farm near Flemingsburg, signed the confession on March 16, British officials declared. They quoted Hoess' statement as saying:

"I personally arranged, on orders received from Himmler in May 1941, the gassing of 2,000,000 persons between June and July, 1941, and at the end of 1943, during which I was commandant at Oswiecim."

New Paltz Will Have Modern Fire House

The village of New Paltz is to have a $60,000 fire house and town hall as the result of the special taxpayers' election held in that village on Tuesday, when the proposition to authorize the board of trustees to float a bond issue was carried by a vote of 153 to 33.

A second proposition authorizing the village board to insure the State Teachers' College in New Paltz for $280,000 and to pay the cost of the premium, amounting to $903.20, was also adopted by a vote of 100 to 81.

John Corwin and Henry DuBois, who were unopposed, were elected trustees for two year terms.

Red Cross Figure Is $30,000 Today

A total of $30,000 towards the county quota of $46,000 was reported today in the current drive for the Fund Campaign of the American Red Cross in Ulster county. The Third ward of the city, under the chairmanship of Alderman Edwin Sammons, topped its quota of $1,300 by nine dollars— to become the sixth of the 13 wards in the city to reach their respective quotas.

Demagogic Claim

In his radio address last evening, Mayor Edelmuth characterized the minority action as an attack upon those receiving home relief and other forms of assistance. He sought to become a self-appointed champion of those receiving public assistance. The facts do not justify this demagogic claim.

As the Republican minority report pointed out, the problem of the two per cent tax limitation cannot be solved by induction—since budget notes must be paid for in next year's budget. This

Local Health Board Favors State-wide Meat Inspections

Kingston's Board of Health at its meeting Tuesday afternoon unanimously endorsed the week of April 7 to 13, as "Know Your Public Health Nurse Week," and went on record as favoring the adoption of a bill now in the state legislature calling for state-wide meat inspections.

Miss Gladys Weber, supervisor of the city's public health nursing staff, spoke briefly at the meeting, and said that plans were being formulated to observe the "Know Your Public Health Nurse Week" in Kingston.

Mayor W. F. Edelmuth, who presided at the meeting, said he would issue a proclamation designating the week in the city, and that the members of the health board would cooperate in every way to make the observance a success here.

C-47 and B-29 Crash Up Tuesdays in Mountains of California; Snow Halts Work Crews

23 Bodies Found

Observers Report That One Plane Exploded in Air

San Francisco, March 20 (P)—Crashes of two big army planes in northern California mountains yesterday apparently took a death toll of 33 army and navy men, whose bodies ground crews labored in difficult terrain today to recover.

Twenty-three bodies, some of them buried several feet in snow, had been found early today at the scene of a C-47 crash in the Sierra Nevada, a mile from the ghost town of Hobart Mills and seven miles from Truckee, Calif. Three others listed on the flight from Stockton, Calif., bound for Ogden, Utah, were believed in the yet inaccessible flight control compartment of the wreckage.

A ground squad pushed toward the wreckage of a B-29 which crashed with seven crewmen into the top of a 3,820-foot peak near Livermore, 30 miles southeast of San Francisco. The bomber came from Hickam Field, Honolulu. Its radio reported engine trouble several hours before the plane plummeted to earth 10 feet from the top of the peak.

A ground squad pushed toward the wreckage of a B-29 which crashed with seven crewmen into the top of a 3,820-foot peak near Livermore, 30 miles southeast of San Francisco. The bomber came from Hickam Field, Honolulu. Its radio reported engine trouble several hours before the plane plummeted to earth 10 feet from the top of the peak.

Witnesses said they saw the C-47 explode in the air, and Captain Harold Simer, commanding the Reno, Nev., army air base, said the wreckage indicated a wing, which had not been found, was blown off before the crash.

Snow plied as high as 12 feet in drifts. Army workers and volunteers who reached the C-47 wreckage by snowmobile toiled through the night by campfire and flashlight in continuing snow to recover the frozen bodies, some of which were severely mangled.

Workers marked holes from which bodies were dug from the snow, and an army board of investigation headed toward the scene from Truckee this morning.

The army readied a 13-ton wrecker for movement up the mountain when the road is cleared to lift the wrecked fuselage in hopes of retrieving the three bodies believed in the control room.

The twin-engined C-47 did not burn.

Missing Since Early Yesterday

The B-29 had been missing since early morning yesterday. A private plane pilot reported discovery of the wreckage late yesterday after an extensive search had been ordered. The bomber pilot had reported his engines were "cutting up" as he approached the mainland and last radio contact with the ground was at 2:05 a. m. (P.T.).

Bridge Bill Is Passed

Alderman V. Roth Upholds Action of G. O. P. Aldermen

Says Mayor Should Be Willing to Furnish Legislative Body With Facts

The $95,000 bond issue for street reconstruction work in Kingston this spring and summer was unanimously approved at the special meeting of the Common Council held Tuesday evening, when the report of the Finance, Ways and Means committee included a list of streets to be rebuilt with the proceeds from the sale of bonds.

The aldermen also unanimously adopted an ordinance authorizing the bond issue.

At the regular meeting of the Common Council held last week, the bond issue failed adoption by the two-thirds vote necessary for passage, when the Republican minority in the council refused to vote favorably unless the Finance, Ways and Means committee report included a list of streets it was proposed to reconstruct. The committee's report adopted last night included the list of streets.

The council also unanimously approved the issuance of notes in anticipation of the bond sale so that the street program could proceed without interruption.

The special meeting last night had been called by Mayor W. F. Edelmuth to act upon the bond issue, which failed adoption last week.

Streets Included

The Finance, Ways and Means committee report, which was signed by all three members of the committee, Alderman Peter Simpson, Joseph Amato and Victor H. Roth, recommended that the ordinance creating the bond issue be adopted.

The list of streets to be reconstructed, as set forth in the report, are: Albany avenue, Boulevard avenue, Broadway, Dock street, Elmendorf street, First avenue, Hasbrouck avenue, John street, Linderman avenue, Lucas avenue, Main street, North street, North Front street, West O'Reilly street, East Strand, West Strand, Second avenue, Third Avenue and South Wall street.

Mayor's Communication
Mayor Edelmuth sent in a communication to the council regarding the bond sale, which was read. The mayor also included in his communication a copy of a resolution adopted by the Board of Public Works asking that a bond issue be created to defray the costs of reconstruction, and also a copy of a report filed with the board by Superintendent Ernest Steedling in which he listed the streets having "top priority" in the street rebuilding program.

Mayor Edelmuth in his communication wrote "Your honorable body on March 5, received my recommendation that you authorize an issuance of bonds to pay the cost of the work. After a week's delay, during which the superintendent of the Board of Public Works gave to the minority member of the Finance, Ways and Means Committee, the information he desired, you defeated the ordinance.

Iran Issue Poses Crucial Test for Security Council

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Washington, March 20 (AP)—Iran's formal charge that Russian troops have overstayed their term and that Soviet agents are adding to Iranian woes appeared certain today to gain attention of U.N.O.'s Security Council.

American officials predicted that this country will support fully the troubled nation's appeal to the Council for prompt action. And indications are that of the 11 Council members, Iran will get an easy majority for putting its case on the agenda for early consideration in the sessions scheduled to open in New York next Monday.

Officials do not discount the possibility that Russia may object. However, since only a majority is required and since Russia normally can count only on Polish support to back up an opposition, the required seven votes for consideration seem assured.

The Iranian complaint was made public here late yesterday by U.N.O. General Secretary Trygve Lie. Filed by Iran Ambassador Hussein Ala, who has been designated by his government to plead the case before the Security Council, it made these two specific charges:

1. That Red Army troops are remaining in Iranian territory beyond the March 2 deadline fixed under an Anglo-Soviet-Iranian treaty of January, 1942. This treaty specified that all foreign troops should be withdrawn from the country six months after the end of the war.

2. That Russia "is continuing to interfere in the internal affairs of Iran through the medium of Soviet agents, officials and armed forces."

Troops Still Moving

Meanwhile, it appeared that in the face of these charges Russia is continuing to send reinforcements into Iran for objectives still described here as obscure.

Albany, N. Y., March 20 (AP)—Governor Dewey signed a bill which makes clear, he asserted, that the state education commissioner lacks the power "to override the wishes" of localities in selecting school sites.

The bill provides that the commissioner may not withhold approval of a site selected by communities if the location and plans conform with general requirements.

These requirements as outlined in the education law and department regulations specify that school plans must provide for heating and ventilation adequate to maintain healthful conditions in classrooms and study halls. In addition, school sites must include playground space.

The Senate, meanwhile, passed unanimously yesterday and sent to the Assembly a bill giving public officials under indictment the right

Russia Could Not Vote In U.N.O. Iran Ballot

New York, March 20 (AP)—Sir Alexander Cadogan, permanent British representative on the United Nations Security Council, predicted today that the Iranian question would be considered by the Council as a dispute. "It is a dispute, in my view," he told a press conference, "and of course counsel confirmation of its being a dispute means that Russia can't vote."

Sir Alexander explained the difference between the Iranian question as scheduled to come before the Council here as compared with its presentation at the London meeting.

"In those days," he said, "the question was one of Russia interfering in the internal affairs of

Doolittle Fliers Were Pretty Good Liars

Shanghai, March 20 (AP)—One of the Doolittle airmen who bombed Tokyo in 1942 told his Japanese captors the flight took off from an island northeast of Japan. He later was executed.

Testifying at the war crimes trial of four Japanese charged with the death of three of the fliers, Tatsuo Kumano said one of the men—Sgt. Harold A. Spatz of Lebo, Kas.—under questioning said all the planes flew from an unnamed island about 600 feet long. Kumano was an interpreter at Nanchang, where Spatz and seven other Americans were taken after the end of the B-25s crashed.

Earlier one of the radio survivors, Lt. George Barr, Queens Village, N. Y., said in an affidavit that under elaborate torture two days after the raid he admitted the flight was from a carrier, but did not name the ship, the Hornet.

Meanwhile, it appeared that in the face of these charges Russia is continuing to send reinforcements into Iran for objectives still described here as obscure.

New York Theatres Face Possible Strike

New York, March 19 (AP)—Mediation efforts to avert a strike of managers and assistant managers of 41 R.K.O. motion picture theatres in New York city and Westchester county in a wage-hour dispute broke off last night and a union spokesman said he did "not see how this strike could be avoided."

Hyman Glickstein, counsel for the Motion Picture Theatres Operating Managers and Assistant Managers Guild, (I.N.D.), said the company failed to comply with a War Labor Board directive calling for weekly salary increases of from $10 to $25, and failed to establish a 48 hour week instead of a 62 hour week. The employees now earn from $41 to $80 a week.

Monroe Goldwater, spokesman for the theatres, said the company was "prepared to continue operations" in the event of a strike.

Bedell Smith Receives Senate Committee Okay

Washington, March 20 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today unanimously approved the nomination of Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith as ambassador to Russia.

Smith, formerly Chief of Staff to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as Allied Supreme Commander in Europe, got the okay after appearing briefly for questioning by committee members. Chairman Connally (D-Tex) said without elaborating that Smith made an excellent impression.

The Hat Reported in Line for U.N.R.R.A. Post

Atlantic City, N. J., March 20 (AP)—A report circulated among U.N.R.R.A. delegates here today that the post of Director General would go to F. H. LaGuardia, former mayor of New York.

Herbert Lehman, chief of the relief organization, resigned because of ill health. Previously, the name of John G. Winant, U. S. Ambassador to the Court of St. James, had figured prominently in speculation over his successor.

Poultry Ceiling May Go

Washington, March 20 (AP)—An O.P.A. official said today the agency expects to suspend price ceilings on poultry "within the next few days." This official, who asked that his name not be used, said poultry now is selling at less than ceiling prices. O.P.A. is authorized to remove controls under the circumstances if it is convinced that inflationary prices will not result.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, MARCH 20, 1946

OLD CARS A MENACE

New York State Automobile Dealers are urging passage of the Anderson-Rapp Bill calling for compulsory registration of all automobile dealers. They point out that such registration would insure that all used cars met approved safety standards before being sold.

The bill, it is said, will in no way restrict legitimate business activity but will have the effect of restricting fraudulent operators from selling automobiles which are a menace on the highways. In addition, such registration would put a stop to the tremendous traffic in black market used cars, since the Motor Vehicle Bureau will have a complete listing of all legitimate dealers.

The increased number of automobile accidents during the past few weeks should serve as a warning that the open season on motorists is upon us. Many lives will be lost in accidents, which could be prevented by getting some of the dangerous jalopies off the road.

Because of the dangerous conditions of many old cars now on the highways, there should be some plan calling for inspection of automobiles or dealer registration or both.

BRITISH TRADITION

More than 5,000 householders in Britain were canvassed by the government on this question: Would you like central heating and hot water in your bathrooms and kitchens? To the astonishment of officials, only 34 per cent of the replies were favorable, 21 per cent were positively opposed and 44 per cent were undecided.

They didn't want to give up their "nice bright fires where the family liked to gather on an evening." The fireplace was "company" for the housewife who tended it all day. In the north of England they wouldn't think of cooking on anything but coal ranges. It seemed not to matter that the statistics claimed 4,000,000 more rooms could be heated and made available for winter use with central heating, and that electrical cookery could cut down on Britain's coal imports. No wonder so many of the more modern English girls are eager to set up housekeeping in this country!

Nearly one-third of the 14,000 miles of New York State highways are scheduled for reconstruction or replacement during the $840,000,000 five-year public works program.

PEACE ADVOCATE

Few more Americans were more devoted to international peace than the late Theodore Marburg of Baltimore. Appointed by President Taft as Minister to Belgium, in which post he preceded Brand Whitlock, he supported every organization likely to promote world peace. He was president of the American Society for Judicial Settlement of International Disputes, an organizer of the League to Enforce Peace, chairman of the executive committee of the American Peace Congress in 1911, and honorary president of the Maryland Peace Society.

Marburg lived long enough to see the possibility of his dreams coming true. The United Nations Organization in many respects is even more than he hoped for. His only regret was that it was not firmly established a quarter of a century ago, so that it might have prevented the second world war.

Recent surveys indicate that 28 per cent of all tourists of the United States plan postwar vacations in New York and other north-eastern states.

ON GUARD

At the end of the last great war, when our foreign enemies were obviously beaten, it is said to have been a common practice for men at the front to throw their guns and other weapons into the trenches, merely kicking a little dirt over them, perhaps, as they started for home. Armistice Day was grand and glorious. We Americans were sitting on top of the world. Our foes could never rise

THE COURSE OF EVENTS

Well, we have had an exciting time this past week here in New York.

First of all, there was Winston Churchill in all his glory of personality and oratory, the best that Britain has or any country can have, speaking his mind and winning back the good-will of Americans for a fumbling Britain. Except for a few Communist hoodlums, who boozed and hissed and belied by order of the Kremlin, New Yorkers loved Winston because he is Winston and they liked his soaking his erstwhile partner in crime, Joe Stalin, square on the jaw. It sounded good to have a bit of truth-telling for a change.

Then we had that curious front-page episode of Gloria Vanderbilt Stokowski telling her mother to go to work like in the old-fashioned melodrama. Why the private lives of Gloria and her mother are important, I do not understand. In fact, as a newspaper reader, I have never been able to appreciate the peep-hole column that tells of the vices, immorality, sins and indecencies of insignificant, synthetic, press-agented nobodies called celebrities. Apparently, it is on the assumption that dirt in a clean world is news. But dirt should be swept out and away.

Then Secretary of State Jimmy Byrnes attended his kinfolk among the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and made a grand speech, as befits an Irishman on such a day, in the course of which he announced the sound American doctrine that having established the charter of U.N.O. as American policy, this country intends to stand by that. And everybody hoped that our government would, in truth, stand by some principle long enough to make it count.

No matter whether you like it or dislike England or like or dislike Russia, it is an enchanting picture to see this heroic figure of 71, Winston Churchill, traveling the world, submitting to every physical hardship, fighting for his country against odds, crying in his clarion voice for principles which are and have ever been our principles. In this era of twisters and two-timing politicians, who say in private what they do not say in public, it is a stimulant to pride and decency to see this figure, Churchill, stand a glory to human dignity.

And then one wants to crawl into a hole at that front-page quarrel between mother and daughter—an age-old quarrel that is normally patched up when the mother is too old and the daughter normally deflated. Every family, every neighborhood possesses such a pair and they do not rate the front page of newspapers or the staccato voices of the radio newscasters.

What makes Gloria newsworthy is that she inherited $4,000,000. She never earned any of it. She was born to it. In her particular case, even her father did not earn it. It came down to him from a cantankerous ferry-captain, hard-swearing, long-spitting, able, tough, the ancient Commodore Vanderbilt who would, were he alive today, marvel at what money and the course of events could do to his progeny. Some of them are among our leading Communists, to say nothing of brawlers in public.

Sixty million casualties of war, 25,000,000 persons displaced and dispossessed, 20,000,000 in inevitably must die of starvation during the next four months, and I am to worry over the meager and manners of one who had not been lived by the traditions of her race, who had never been noticed—which would have been better for her and for the world.

I should like to protest against this self-advertising of nobilities by publicized wickedness. Instead of telling about a rich gal who instructs her mother to go to work, why not tell about the thousands of decent men and women who support their parents, who keep them off relief rolls, who bring to them honor and dignity? And similarly, instead of glamorizing the bums who two-timed their husbands at war, who cheated and betrayed men who fought for their countries, why not add fame to the millions of American women who kept their homes fresh and clean, cared for their children, respected the parents of their husbands, honored the Commandments concerning respect and adultery?

LARD DIET IN ECZEMA

Several years ago I spoke about two Chicago physicians doing research work in eczema finding that an oil made from corn gave excellent results in curing this persistent skin disease. As they could not, at that time anyway, give information as to the kind or brand of corn oil used I never wrote further about it, though I have read articles on use of corn oil helping eczema in several medical journals.

Eczema is often a hard disease to cure and sometimes a hard disease to recognize because of its variations. One skin specialist told his fellow physicians that if they called every skin disease eczema they would be right in more cases than they would be wrong, as eczema causes more than one-half of all skin diseases.

Despite the fact that children's specialists find it necessary to cut down or remove fat (cream) from milk, fat or oil helps many cases of eczema.

Dr. Arild E. Hansen, in Food and Nutrition News, states that the blood serum of infants and children suffering from eczema has been studied and it has been found that the degree of unsaturation of their blood fats tends to be definitely lower than in individuals of the same age free from eczema. Lard is relatively rich in essential unsaturated fatty acids. The feeding of lard with the diet resulted in definite improvement in patients under the age of 16. Infants took the lard directly from a spoon without difficulty. Older children preferred to spread it on crackers or bread or mixed with peanut butter or cinnamon. Most patients took a spoonful of lard two to three times daily without trouble.

For many years it has been known that a complex or combination of three diseases—asthma, hay fever, and eczema—runs in some families. It is called the asthma-hay fever-eczema complex; grandfather suffered with asthma, father with hay fever and child with eczema. There is something about the family makeup that makes them less able to fight off these three diseases.

Legislative Roundup

By HENRY LEADER

Albany, N. Y., March 20 (AP)— Revision of the adopted Moore Commission program, proposed by Governor Dewey's administration, furnished the Democratic Party today with a fresh assortment of political punches to throw at the Republicans in the inter-party fight over state aid to cities.

On the ropes and being counted out in their gubernatorial election was fight to win additional help municipalities, Democratic legislative leaders had their hopes re- vived last night by the disclosure that the administration had sponsored a bill which would give about 20 cities and 546 villages a larger share of state revenue than intended in the Moore Commission program.

Withdraw Comment

The minority leaders withheld formal comment pending an announcement by Comptroller Frank C. Moore, commission chairman, of the details of the changes and the reasons therefor. But it was no secret that they viewed the alterations as an unexpected stroke of good political luck almost on the eve of adjournment of the legislature.

Under the Moore Commission program of state aid to localities, an integral part of Dewey's budget approved recently, the state is committed to pay its sub-division a fixed amount each year, on a population basis, in lieu of shared taxes.

Cities will receive $6.75 per capita, villages $3.55 and towns $3. The formula includes a "taper" method under which the gain or loss to each locality each year for the next five years is limited to 10 per cent of the amount received as shared taxes in its fiscal year that ended in 1944.

The new bill gives cities and villages the option of using as a base upon which guaranteed annual assistance is predicted either their shared tax receipts for their fiscal years that ended in 1944 or the 1944 calendar year.

Shared tax receipts climbed steadily throughout 1944. Therefore it would be to the financial advantage of the 20 of the 62 cities and the 546 of the 548 villages that have fiscal years ending before December 31 to use the 1944 calendar year as base. All towns operate on the calendar year.

Big Benefit to New York

New York city would be the principal beneficiary under the proposed revision. Comptroller Moore's office gave out figures showing that the city's increased per capita revenues from using the calendar year would amount to $1,576,966 or a total of $51,825,937 in the first year of the plan's operation.

Linked to the issue is Mayor William O'Dwyer's New York city tax program, which was revised again yesterday. The principal change provides that the city shall be given authority to levy for three years, instead of two, new taxes which are estimated will yield about $80,000,000 a year. Meanwhile the legislature assembled today for another overtime session in its drive to adjourn by Saturday night. Republican legislative leaders were to decide whether they would close the session Saturday or next Tuesday.

Highlights of yesterday's session were approval of a proposed constitutional amendment to pay soldier bonuses totaling $400,000,000. Senate passage, 49-4, of Senator Thomas C. Desmond's bill permitting newspaper men to keep confidential their sources of information, repeal of the major provisions of the War Emergency Act, final approval of Governor Dewey's program bill providing for uniform accounting methods by insurance companies, and defeat of a motion by Democratic Assemblyman Leonard Farbstein of New York city to force a floor vote on his compulsory health insurance bill.

Significant change in the reasoning impelled by short rations.

Paris, March 19.—A distinguished French friend—long a keen observer of the trend of events at home and abroad—remarked to me as we were discussing his country's politic-economic difficulties:

"France's problem is one of food. We haven't had a piece of meat in my home for three weeks, because it couldn't be bought. Even the black market hasn't got much meat. That's what the people are up against, and their outlook is being swayed by their government."

Well, it's true that most folk think with their bellies when they're hungry. Moreover, on returning to Paris after an absence of a few weeks, we find that there has been a subtle and significant change in the reasoning impelled by short rations.

France had been expecting to get wheat from North America and meat from the Argentine. On the strength of its hopes, the government abandoned bread cards last November only to find that they had to be restored the first of this year, thus giving public morale a nasty jolt. Since then French belts have been drawn tighter and tighter.

Then a few days ago the nation was given the sensational news that Russia had offered France 500,000 tons of grain, providing this country could find the shipping to move it. The French have crews, but few ships, and the United States already has provided liberty ships to help transport this badly needed food.

The reaction of many of the French public is what would be expected. The people—not having had an explanation of why they couldn't get the wheat they needed from the United States or Canada and the meat from the Argentine—are saying:

"Russia is giving us the help which we couldn't get elsewhere."

That fits perfectly into the program of the French Communists, who are making a heavy propaganda campaign in preparation for the forthcoming national elections in May when the new constitution will be adopted and the republic will enter a fresh phase.

Mind you, I have no information that Moscow's move was other than purely humanitarian. I can only report what the effect is here in France on many people. And it may be suggested in passing that this would seem to be a mighty good time for the other Allied capitals to explain clearly the circumstances which made it impossible to fulfill the French hopes, since the people of this country certainly don't understand the situation.

consulting engineer to the Army Corps of Engineers, would describe the problems involved to convert the canal from the lock type.

Gripe Column Back

Rome, March 19 (AP)—"Mail Call," soldier's grievance column, reappeared in the Stars and Stripes today, two days after the paper had announced that it would be discontinued because of alleged censorship imposed by Theatre Commander Lt. Gen. John C. H. Lee. The newspaper offered no explanation, and it was understood that members of the editorial staff had been ordered not to discuss the incident with civilian newspaper correspondents.

Rutgers Merger

Trenton, N. J., March 19 (AP)—

The proposed merger of Rutgers University and the University of Newark was approved by the Assembly yesterday, 47 to 10, after intra-party disagreement. Under the plan, the Newark institution would become the Newark Colleges of Rutgers University.

Assemblyman Duane E. Minard (R-Essex) led the fight for the consolidation, which still requires Senate approval.

Every cloud has a silver lining or every silver lining has a cloud. It is the cloud that puts the fight in us and not the silver lining. If everything was rosy for us all the time and just as we would have it, we would soon lose our pep, quit study, work or even ordinary thinking. It is the STRIFE that makes us know we are alive and forces us to fight, study, work, strive to live and gain, and is in reality what makes for progress.

Long Island Faces
Acute Shortage
Of Seed Potatoes

Ithaca, N. Y., March 20 (AP)—The 75,000 member New York State Farm Bureau Federation informed the Office of Defense Transportation yesterday that Long Island potato growers face a serious loss of crops because of inability to obtain delivery of seed potatoes.

In a telegram to the O.D.T., E. S. Foster, general secretary of the Federation, urged "immediate priority" on cars for transportation of seed, and warned that "every day lost in planting means less food."

In explaining that the "situation demands drastic and quick action," Foster stated that planting has been in progress on Long Island for more than a week, and the transportation deadlock has been developing for about two weeks.

Almost 100 percent of the seed potatoes planted on Long Island are brought in yearly, Foster declared, and Nassau county gets only about five percent of its supply in the fall and early winter, making its present situation serious.

"Suffolk county grows more potatoes and is not in as bad a predicament," Foster stated, "since its dealers get about half of their seed prior to this time. Unless we get the seed rolling the situation also will be very serious in that county."

Long Island's annual seed potato requirements for 70,000 acres are about 1,500,000 bushels.

The forth coming Red Army commemoratives will include designs showing an artillery parade in Red Square and a victory parade. Russia also re-issued three stamps of the mother medal designs and two stamps marking the 125th anniversary of the birth of Friedrich Engels.

STAMPS in the NEWS

AP Features

Two new Russian stamps and one from Manchukuo

A military theme continues to dominate Soviet Russia's stamps. New arrivals include two stamps marking "Artillery Day" and four stamps paying tribute to civilian participation in World War II. Promised for future release this year are three stamps commemorating the 28th anniversary of the Red Army and a set of nine airmail stamps similar to last year's issue which pictured Soviet war planes.

The "Artillery Day" stamp naturally picture artillery. The day was celebrated last Nov. 19. The date appears on the 30-kopek brown stamp, which depicts a soldier standing between two giant cannon whose mouths dominate the design. Artillery of the "Long Tom" type is massed in front of a spired building on the 60-k green value and inscribed on the stamp are the words, "Artillery—the God of War."

The part played by civilians on the home front during World War II is portrayed on the four bi-colored civilian tribute stamps. Each has the same frame—a hammet and two onions at the left and a sickle and sheaf of wheat at the right. A 20-k dark blue and gray pictures workers completing a tank, a 30-k black and brown portrays a threshing machine in a grain field; the 60-k green and brown, airplane designers at work and a one-ruble blue and orange, fireworks at Moscow in celebration of a victory.

Australia's coal miners have been told by the postmaster general, Sen. Donald Cameron, they must earn a stamp in their honor by their peace effort. Told by the Australian Miner's Journal that "the miners who played a big part in accomplishing" victory "should be given recognition" by a special stamp issue, Sen. Cameron replied that although hostilities had ceased, miners and other workers had a long way to go before peace was established in industry. The achievement of this, he said would justify a special stamp.

The Dutch colony of Surinam (Dutch Guiana) marked its first philatelic exhibition, held at Paramaribo Feb. 24 to March 2, by surcharging two stamps of the Queen Wilhelmina head type. The surcharge added 40 cents to the value of the 10-cent denomination and 60 cents to the 15-cent value. "Lucht (air) Post" appeared vertically on the sides and the anti-tuberculosis cross in each corner.

Saugerties Prepares for Big Industrial and Business Boom

G. E. Plant Reason for Optimism

Alterations Are Being Made to the Former R.C.A. Plant to Meet G.E. Needs

Expansion Plans

Await Normal Flow of Building and Housing Material

Like thousands of other American communities, the incorporated village of Saugerties awaits only the return of the normal flow of building and housing materials to enjoy a real postwar industrial and business boom.

You get that impression when you walk down the main stems and stop at the corner of Main and Exchange to trade verbal patter with some of the leading citizens. There is a tense feeling of anticipation—the feeling that Saugerties is going to step out and become a thriving community in the not too distant future.

The big reason, of course, is the lease of the former R.C.A. building by the General Electric Company of Schenectady for transferal of part of the G.E.'s vast manufacturing program to Saugerties. The deal was reported consummated last Saturday at a meeting between Henry Knaust, of the mushroom firm, and G.E. representatives.

The rumors and speculation attending a small town boom are rife in Saugerties. Everywhere you go, you are bombarded with a wild variety of rumors, some of them bordering on the fantastic. One report says G.E. will employ 600 persons.

Meanwhile, General Electric officials are maintaining an iron-clad blackout on all news pertaining to the Saugerties plant.

Alterations at Plant

Improvements and alterations are being effected at a feverish pace at the new G.E. outlet, but it's next to impossible to ascertain such salient factors as:

1. The date when General Electric expects to transfer part of its personnel and industry to Saugerties.

2. The type of product G.E. will specialize in at the new plant. (G.E. manufactures more than 20,000 appliances in the electrical field.)

3. The exact number of men who will transfer from other General Electric plants to Saugerties.

4. What arrangements have been completed for housing and sustaining the new influx of citizens.

The three men prominently identified in the negotiations with Knaust Brothers in clinching the G.E. deal—Mayor Franklin P. Clum, president of the Chamber of Commerce, John C. Sauer, and Chamber Secretary George L. DuBois—had little information to volunteer when interviewed by a Freeman reporter early this week.

All three are quite enthusiastic about the transfer of G.E. business to Saugerties, but for the time being are maintaining strict silence on details. If there is any official information, they said, it will have to come from company representatives.

The man and woman on the Saugerties streets isn't that reticent. They translate the transfer into terms of business and industrial boom. The grocers, butchers, bakers, tavern keepers, theatre, storekeepers and bowling alley proprietors view the industrial renaissance in terms of cold cash. It will mean more business and they're aiming to get some of it.

Newberry Expands

With expansion in mind, the J. J. Newberry five and ten chain has purchased a large building in which its present establishment is housed for necessary expansion. The building was purchased from Michael Iannone of Saugerties. Improvements and alterations will proceed in a short time. The deal is significant of the trend of the times.

John C. Sauer, real estate tycoon who controls a vast amount of property in the town of Saugerties and nearby communities and should know the answer to the $64 question of the day "Where are the new people going to be housed?"

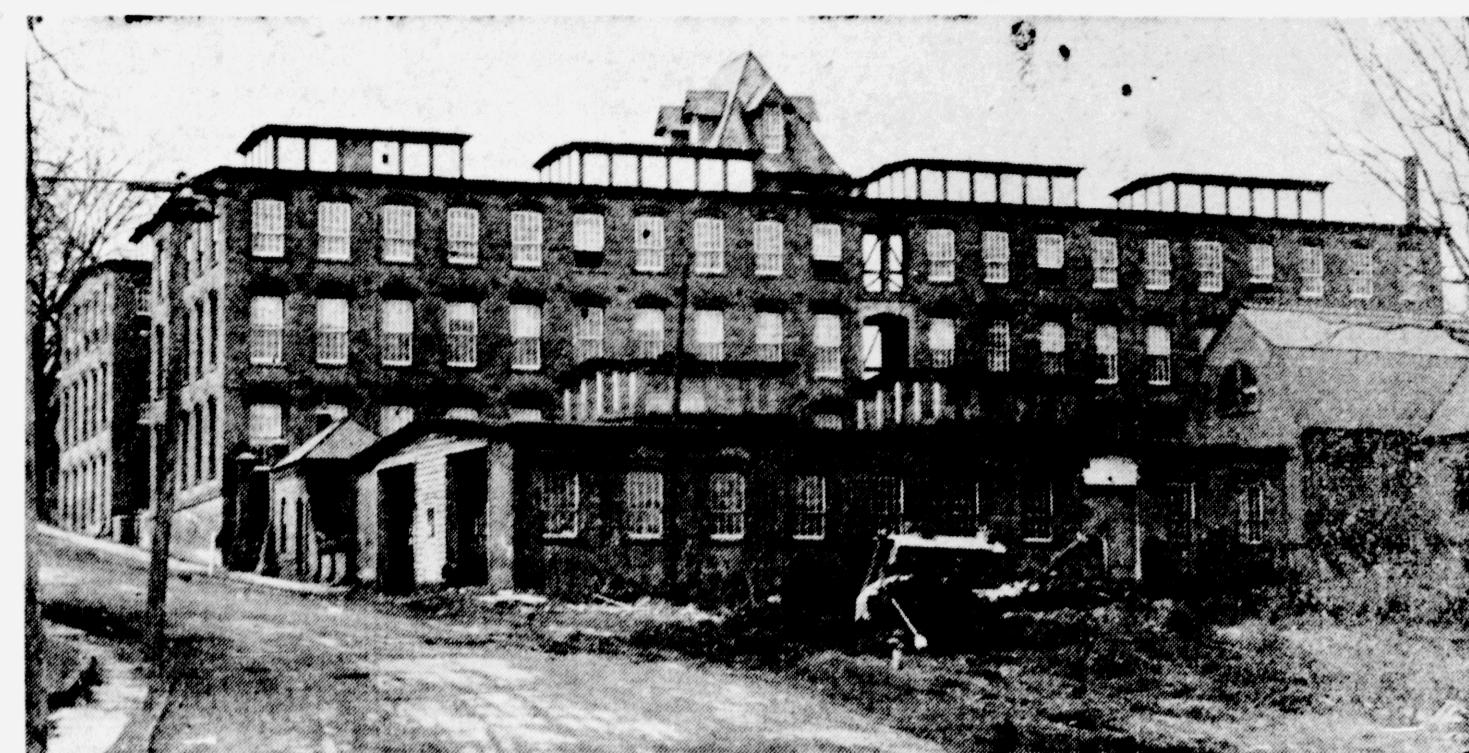

"We're tied hand and foot by the lack of building materials," Mr. Sauer told the Freeman reporter. "As soon as the materials start coming through, we look for a real housing boom, but I guess you can say that for almost any community in America."

"We realize that housing the new G.E. workers is going to be quite a problem. As a matter of fact, we are considering making improvements on buildings that in normal times would be torn down. I can't give you any definite information, but I know that somehow or other, we will take care of them."

Did Mr. Sauer know how many men G.E. would transfer to Saugerties? Definitely not. "We'll know nothing until G.E. makes its own official announcement, he said.

The conversation with Mr. Sauer disclosed that there is hardly an established business house in Saugerties that isn't planning some sort of alterations or improvements when materials

HOME OF POSSIBLE G.E. PLANT

When and if the General Electric Auxiliary plant locates in Saugerties it will occupy the building that housed the R.C.A. operation during the war. A large, spacious structure, it will meet all G.E. requirements.

CROSSROADS OF SAUGERTIES FUTURE

The area around Main and Exchange streets, the "Times Square" of the village, is due for a virtual face-lifting job, with numerous business houses planning alterations, improvements and additions.

Saugerties is well-equipped to handle a steady flow of modern bus traffic. The Mountain View terminal built on the old Maxwell House site services virtually all major bus routes in eastern New York.

age the revised Saugerties squad if the job were offered him. Cahill replied that was a matter for the directors of the Recreation Commission to decide.

"I'm willing to go along as I have in the past few years," he said "if the new organization wants me. In any event, I will do everything possible to help baseball recover its pristine glories in Saugerties."

A possible Hudson Valley League franchise is being held in abeyance, he said, pending the first meeting of the returned servicemen and war-time players of the past few years.

Cantine Memorial Field, home of the Saugerties baseball club, is controlled by the Recreation Commission which is headed by Holly Cantine. Any request for use of the field would have to be acted upon by this group. As yet no requests have been filed. The annual spring meeting of the committee generally is held the latter part of March.

"We're going to have the best team possible," Cahill said, "as we

A BUILDING BOOM IF . . .

President John C. Sauer, of the Saugerties Chamber of Commerce, has no doubt about the village industrial and rebuilding boom when materials are available.

SEES BRIGHT FUTURE

Mayor Franklin P. Clum of the village of Saugerties envisions a bright future for his constituency if the G.E. deal is clinched and building materials are soon available.

Supt. Morse indicated that he had no official information concerning the G.E. transfer to the old R.C.A. plant and would await developments before taking steps to meet any possible influx of new pupils.

The superintendent said that about 25 Saugerties youths have taken advantage of the G.I. Bill of Rights educational benefits and have resumed their college studies.

The first half championship of the Saugerties A Men's Bowling League will be decided Sunday afternoon at the Saugerties Academy, when Grand Union opposes Hiltibrant's. The teams would up in a tie in the final half standing and the roll off will be conducted under the rules and regulations of the American Bowling Congress.

Ben Fein's Liquor Store keggers, 1944-1945 champions of the Saugerties Mixed Bowling League, have clinched the first half title in the current race. The second half gets under way this week.

Fein's squad swept both halves last season. Members of the team are Ben Fein, captain; Al Ricketson, Will Coons, John Teel, Mrs. William Coons and Mrs. Al Saunders.

Fein Predicts Big Interest This Year in Softball Game

Eight-Team League Planned for Spirited Competition in Summer Play

Saugerties will have a crack eight-team softball league this season, Ben Fein, former Kingston cothier now operating a liquor store, said yesterday.

"There is a lot of local interest after a two-year layoff due to the war," Fein said, "and we feel the General Electric workers may have some good softball players in the group."

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SECRETARY

George L. DuBois, secretary of the Saugerties Chamber of Commerce, is principally occupied as compositor for the Saugerties Post. He expects big news soon.

SIGN OF EXPANSION

The J. J. Newberry Co. has purchased the building in which it is now located and plans immediate expansion. The building was purchased from Michael Iannone.

Garbage Removal Proposition Loses At Polls, 189-4

Saugerties voters by a margin of better than 2 to 1 Tuesday defeated a proposition for municipal garbage removal. The vote was 189 to 4 against the proposal.

The three incumbent village trustees—Henry York, John C. Sauer and Frank M. Hughes—were virtually unopposed for reelection in two-year terms. A few write-in votes were recorded.

State's Small Business Reported in High Gear

Albany, N. Y., March 20—Veterans, established businessmen and former war workers flooded the program as the state-sponsored

The drive is designed to assist veterans and others in the state to make up for the 100,000 small businesses that closed during the war.

Already 94 local small business advisory committees, composed of business-leaders, have been organized. These committees give advice on local business prospects.

Another 36 are in the process of organization to make the program effective at the local level, said Alfred J. Worsdell, Jr., dep-

Tabulation of requests received by the State Department of Com-

VETERAN'S STANDARD HOME NEWS

STANDARD IS TOPS, THIS VET SAYS DO YOU BLAME US FOR BEING PROUD?

AREA VETS STILL WAIT IN LINE

Discharge from the service has brought no cessation of standing in line for about one-third of the Albany Area veterans—they line up every week for unemployment checks.

A check with the United States Employment Services revealed that 26,180 area vets have been discharged as of February 20. Next day $255 of that number lined up for regular allowances of $20 a week as provided in the GI Bill of Rights, the State Unemployment Insurance offices announced.

A further check with some vets receiving unemployment insurance poised this question: "Why work 40 hours a day when you can loaf for $20?" Many had attained skills while in the armed forces for which they found an outlet in civilian life. Some others had never worked before entering the service and were unemployed at a living wage.

I. C. S. COURSES OKAY FOR VETS

International Correspondence School courses have been approved by the U. S. Veterans administration for study by veterans under the educational provisions of the GI Bill of Rights. It was learned yesterday that there is an authoritative source. The ruling would provide for payment of tuition and supplies.

INDUSTRY APPLIES FOR TRAINING

Several larger Albany industries have applied for "on-the-job" training as provided in the GI Bill of Rights. It was learned yesterday. If approved, the programs would provide hundreds of job opportunities for Albany Area vets. Many firms would also benefit from the program.

Legislative Roundup

By HENRY LEADER
Albany, N. Y., March 20 (AP)—
Division of the adopted Moore Commission program, proposed by Governor Dewey's administration and the Democratic Party began with a fresh assortment of political punches to throw at the republicans in the inter-party battle over state aid to cities.

On the ropes and being counted in their gubernatorial election year fight to win additional help from municipalities, Democratic legislative leaders had their hopes revived last night by the disclosure that the administration had sponsored a bill which would give about 20 cities and 546 villages a larger share of state revenue than extended in the Moore Commission program.

Withhold Comment
The minority leaders withheld formal comment pending announcement by Comptroller Frank C. Moore, commission chairman of the details of the changes and the reasons therefor. But it was no secret that they viewed the alterations as an unexpected stroke of good political luck almost on the eve of adjournment of the legislature.

Under the Moore Commission program of state aid to localities, an integral part of Dewey's budget, approved recently, the state is committed to pay its sub-division
a fixed amount each year, on a again yesterday. The principal change provides that the city shall be given authority to levy for three years, instead of two, new taxes which are estimated to yield about $80,000,000 a year.

Meanwhile the legislature assembled today for another overtime session in its drive to adjourn by Saturday night. Republican legislative leaders were to decide whether they would close the session Saturday or next Tuesday.

Highlights of yesterday's session were approval of a proposed constitutional amendment to pay soldier bonuses totaling $400,000,000.
Senate passage, 49-4, of Senator
Thomas C. Desmond's bill permitting newspaper men to keep confidential their sources of information, repeal of the major provisions of the War Emergency Act, final approval of Governor Dewey's program bill providing for uniform accounting methods by insurance companies, and defeat of a motion by Democratic Assemblyman Leonard Farbstein of New York city to force a floor vote on compulsory health insurance population basis, in lieu of shared taxes.

Cities will receive $6.75 per capita, villages $3.55 and towns $3.
The formula includes a "taper" method under which the gain or loss to each localities each year for the next five years is limited to 10 per cent of the amount received as shared taxes in its fiscal year that ended in 1944.

The new bill gives cities and villages the option of using as a base upon which guaranteed anual assistance is predicated either their shared tax receipts for their fiscal years that ended in 1944 or the 1944 calendar year.

Shared tax receipts climbed steadily throughout 1944. Therefore it would be to the financial advantage of the 20 of the 62 cities and the 546 of the 548 villages that have fiscal years ending before December 31 to use the 1944 calendar year as a base. All towns operate on the calendar year.

Big Benefit to New York
New York city would be the principal beneficiary under the proposed revision. Comptroller Moore's office gave out figures showing that the city's increased per capita revenues from using the calendar year would amount to $1,576,966 or a total of $51,825, 937 in the first year of the plan's operation.

Linked to the issue is Mayor
William O'Dwyer's New York city tax program, which was revised and approved recently, the state is committed to pay its sub-division
a fixed amount each year, on a again yesterday. The principal

Tools for Work
Subject at Lions' Dinner Tuesday

Washington, March 20 (UPI)— People coming to Washington to see this season's famed cherry and magnolia blossoms should prepare their aesthetic sense for a possible shock.

The shock won't be to the sight, for the blossoms with their delicate pinks and whites, will be beautiful.

But the odor may be pretty terrific if the Capitol gardeners' worst dreams come true.

The reason, a bumper crop of wild garlic. More prolific in years, the garlic grows in lawns surrounding some of the trees.

Imagination, initiative, enthusiasm, faith, and courage were the one of the teachers. However, Mr. Martocci said no teacher could decide whether a single salary schedule as proposed by the board would be satisfactory unless the schedule was known.

Whole Board on 'Big Matter'

Mr. Feeney and spokesman for the group although during the evening several of the teachers spoke, including the presidents of both groups.

Teachers Ask for Report

Mr. Martocci opened the discussion by stating that on January 24 the Kingston Teachers' Federation had submitted a proposal for increases and had been informed that the matter was under advisement by a special committee of the board. No further action was taken and the teachers recently had heard rumors of adoption of the single salary schedule plan. This, without knowledge as to what the schedule might involve, he said had confused the teachers and as a result he had suggested a meeting with the board to discuss the matter.

Mr. Feeney asked if the teachers had any facts to "back-up" their proposal of January 24 and Mr. Martocci stated that there was no argument needed for support of the request for an increased salary other than the high cost of living. What the teachers wanted was an adequate and equitable salary schedule so they might properly support their families in this period of high costs.

It was pointed out that a poll had been taken in grade schools on the single salary schedule by one of the teachers. However, Mr. Martocci said no teacher could decide whether a single salary schedule as proposed by the board would be satisfactory unless the schedule was known.

Want Immediate Relief

Speaking for the teachers Mr. Martocci said the teachers were concerned in immediate relief rather than a long range plan.

Feeney said the proposed plan was high living costs made it necessary that increases be granted for next year in such an amount as to permit the teachers to meet the present day cost of living. Mr. Martocci said the proposed plan appeared to be a step in the right direction but stated there could be no decision by the teachers until the plan was definitely made known. The single salary schedule could not be endorsed until its provisions were made known to the teachers, Mr. Martocci said.

If the figures of Senator Wicks are correct, the city would not have to raise $4.25 by direct taxation. Mr. Martocci said, in speaking of the tax rate increase mentioned by Mr. Feeney as being required if the 20 per cent increase in the school tax since for each additional $23,000 raised by direct taxation on real property the tax rate goes up over $1 per $1,000 of assessment.

Talks About Taxes

Talking figures, Mr. Feeney said that the present cost of living bonus given teachers amounted to about 8 per cent increase in salary. In addition the federation was asking for an additional 20 per cent increase. This increase would mean a $4.25 increase in the school tax since for each additional $23,000 raised by direct taxation on real property the tax rate goes up over $1 per $1,000 of assessment.

Cites Building Program

Mr. Feeney replied that a building program was being undertaken and a considerable amount of money would be required for sites and architect fees next year.

He said it would mean more than $57,000 for improvements to the system.

Mr. Martocci replied that the teachers were in favor of improvements to the school system, but none of the expected $57,000 could be used for such work since it was designed for salaries and school room work.

Mr. Feeney replied that if this was used for salaries, it would mean that an equal amount would have to be raised for building purposes and this would be reflected in a higher tax rate.

At this point Mr. Feeney pointed out that since 1941 the teachers have been given increases which amount to 25.9 per cent and he asked whether the teachers would be willing to settle for the difference between this 25.9 per cent, and the amount of the average demands of about 50 per cent being sought in industry. To this Mr. Martocci replied that in 1941 the teachers salaries in Kingston were "sub-standard" and many had at that time found it necessary to go out and get outside work in order to meet the cost of living.

Opinion on Breaking Union

During the discussion it was stated by Mr. Martocci that there was an opinion that the present situation existing in the grade schools regarding the single salary schedule was an attempt to bring about disunity in the Federation and "break up the union."

After considerable discussion it was stated that the teachers took part in the opposition to the single salary schedule in principle but before any approval of the plan could be given by the teaching groups, the definite schedule of salaries would have to be presented.

Mr. Feeney stated there was no definite schedule now prepared but among the plans suggested was one calling for a maximum of $2,900 for three years training, $3,000 for four years training and $3,100 for five years training.

Cook Suggests Survey

Trustee Cook suggested additional figures be sought from towns in a similar position as Kingston before any definite schedule is made up and it was stated that when such figures were received and a proposed schedule was gotten out by the Board it would be submitted to the two teaching groups for their inspection.

Mr. Martocci said the teachers, many of whom were taxpayers, were not interested in the tax rate so much as they were in the adoption of a decent salary schedule and he said he believed the people of the city were also interested in seeing the teachers get proper pay.

One teacher suggested that improvements to the school system had long been made "at the expense of the teachers."

Mr. Feeney also pointed out that by 1949 the two per cent debt limitation would also apply to school funds and he said this would mean hardship unless assessments were increased or some method worked out to give local relief.

In closing Mr. Feeney said the Board wanted a schedule of pay for teachers which was comparable to other similar cities but he said the tax rate could not go too high. The 20 per cent increase now sought by the teachers together with the present cost of living bonus would mean a tax rate of $4.25 above our present $13.84 rate and further increases if the building program was to be undertaken.

Picking out a specific case of a teacher who was present, Trustee Leehive pointed out that this teacher had received an increase of $8.75 a week for a 40 week year, which he said was a considerable increase.

Before closing Mr. Martocci asked the Board to consider a $300 increment increase this year.

Proposals Submitted

Following are the proposals submitted by the Kingston Teachers' Federation for the school year 1946-47:

Proposal I

That the minimum and maximum classifications for all teachers in the Kingston School System be raised as follows:

Elementary Level—$1,700 minimum: $2,525 maximum.

Secondary Level—$2,000 minimum: $2,900 maximum.

These classifications represent an approximate increase of Twenty (20 per cent) over the present salary schedule.

Proposal II

That the base pay of each teacher for the school year 1946-47 be increased Twenty (20 per cent). This proposal takes into consid-

one of the teachers. However, Mr. Martocci said no teacher could decide whether a single salary schedule as proposed by the board would be satisfactory unless the schedule was known.

Whole Board on 'Big Matter'

Mr. Feeney stated that as a rule salary matters would be decided by the teachers' committee but the demands of the teachers now for a general 20 per cent increase in pay was a "big matter" and therefore the entire board had been called in to sit as a committee of the whole. He said various schedules from other cities had been received and studied and at a meeting Monday evening the board had formulated a proposed schedule which would be further discussed and completed when additional facts were at hand. The trend it was found was toward single salary schedules. This means, he said, equal training draws equal pay. However, the board had taken no action either on the proposed schedule or the single salary proposal.

In The Pocket

with CHARLIE THIAGO

Pope Myers, one of the truly underrated bowlers of the city, pocketed the field last week with a pair of hefty 600 triples. The 600, a curving curve ball tossed in 256 and 630 in the Central Rec circuit and came back with 642 in the Mayor's loop. His high scores were 216 and 222.

Phil Masters also doubled in the 600, department, tossing in 218 in the Central Rec loop and 208 in the Major. George Flemings, George Robinson and H. Bowkie clicked for the select circle as Dohlers piled up a near-900 against Hofbraus. "Curly" posted 533, Brokies 630 with 251, and Robinson 602.

Elsewhere in the men's loops, Pop Auchmood, a real bowling master and worker, posted 222 in the Booster, Orv Van Alstyne 208, Phil Masters 268, Joe Dulin 201, J. P. Hayman, whose curve is the delight of Mixed Leagues, was 201, and with a 208, John Frederick, who generally sits back and reads the headlines made by his wife, reeled off 227 in the No-nos.

CHRIS WILSON LEADS FEMALE KEGLERS

Chris Wilson set the pace for female Keglers with a creditable 510. Seven others attained the charmed circle. Ruth Coons registered her best effort to date with 201 and 520. Charlotte Laine, fourth, the 165-average mark with 514. Dot Wolff blasted a 213 single and 529 trio, while Rose Schatzel dipped under her average with 526. Ed Brink bowled over 508. Etta Ginder and Marge Jansen correlated the two 500 totals in the Empire's loop, with 521 and 500 respectively. Of special note was the Jones Dari-Ettes' 932.

Ben Fein, a terror in the American Legion days of Sampson, Modjeska, Ferraro, Mauro, Leventhal et al., retains a keen interest in sports. Ed Modjeska, on the shelf for several months, beat his old sidekick, Frankie Mauro, for a fin.

ADVERTISE IN THE FREEMAN

Long Island Faces
Acute Shortage
Of Seed Potatoes

Ithaca, N. Y., March 20 (AP)—The 75,000 member New York State Farm Bureau Federation informed the Office of Defense Transportation yesterday that Long Island potato growers face a serious loss of crops because of inability to obtain delivery of seed potatoes.

In a telegram to the O.D.T., E. S. Foster, general secretary of the Federation, urged "immediate priority" on cars for transportation of seed, and warned that "every day lost in planting means less food."

In explaining that the "situation demands drastic and quick action," Foster stated that planting has been in progress on Long Island for more than a week, and the transportation deadlock has been developing for about two weeks.

Almost 100 percent of the seed potatoes planted on Long Island are brought in yearly, Foster declared, and Nassau county gets only about five percent of its supply in the fall and early winter, making its present situation serious.

"Suffolk County grows more potatoes and is not in as bad a predicament," Foster stated, "since its dealers get about half of their seed prior to this time. But unless we get the seed rolling the situation also will be very serious in that county."

Long Island's annual seed potato requirements for 70,000 acres are about 1,500,000 bushels.

Two new Russian stamps and one from Manchukuo

A military theme continues to dominate Soviet Russia's stamps. New arrivals include two stamps marking "Artillery Day" and four stamps paying tribute to civilian participation in World War II. Promised for future release this year are three stamps commemorating the 28th anniversary of the Red Army and a set of nine airmail stamps similar to last year's issue which pictured Soviet war planes.

The "Artillery Day" stamps naturally picture artillery. The day was celebrated last Nov. 19. The date appears on the 30-kopek Russian stamp, which depicts a soldier standing between two giant cannon whose mouths dominate the design. Artillery of the "Long Tom" type is massed in front of a spiraling building on the 60-k gray value and inscribed on the stamp are the words, "Artillery—the God of War."

The part played by civilians on the home front during World War II is portrayed on the four bicolor civilian tribute stamps. Each has the same frame—a hammer and bayonet at the left and a sickle and sheaf of wheat at the right. A 20-k dark blue and gray pictures workers completing a tank; a 30-k black and brown poritray a threshing machine in a grain field; the 60-k green and brown, airplane designers at work; and a one-ruble blue and orange, fireworks at Moscow in celebration of a victory.

The forthcoming Red Army commemoratives will include designs showing an artillery parade in Red Square and a victory parade. Russia also re-issued three stamps of the mother medal designs and two stamps marking the 125th anniversary of the birth of Friedrich Engels. A dozen wartime Japanese isto prepare for a possible capitalist-provided war."

New York, March 20 (AP)—Secretary of Commerce Henry Wallace appealed last night for "a special effort to talk things over with" Russian leaders "and come to a friendly understanding" but declared Russia can't ride roughshod over Europe and get away with it any more than we could in Latin America or England in India and Africa."

Calling for a "clear statement of the facts" behind "the recent actions of the Soviet governments which have been so disturbing to the Soviet government that no country however powerful in a military or economic way can be beaten by mere force even the smallest countries for very long."

Wallace, speaking at a dinner honoring W. Averell Harriman, retired Ambassador to Russia, given by the American Society for Russian Relief, Inc., said "the U. S. has nothing to gain but on the contrary everything to lose by beating the tom-toms against Russia."

Harriman told the gathering he could not minimize the "differences that have arisen" between the United States and Russia "since the end of the war," and continued:

"I must state that I, personally, endorse the positions that have been taken by our government in opposing certain actions and foreign policies of the Soviet government."

The Soviets, Wallace said, "may feel that the only road to peace is to attack."

Western Union Resumes
Messenger Boy Service

Messengers to run the nation's errands are available again, J. W. Garry, local manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, stated today in announcing resumption of errand service by telegraph messengers.

Messenger errand service was suspended by the company after the outbreak of the war in order to concentrate the use of its forces and facilities on the speedy movement of the unprecedented volume of vital war messages.

In keeping with the nation's reconversion activities, it has been the Telegraph Company's aim to reinstate as rapidly as conditions permitted this collateral service, for which there is a substantial public demand," Mr. Garry stated. "Effective today patrons may call on us to furnish messengers to deliver packages and letters and to perform other tasks for which a messenger may be used."

Still Loves Gloria

New York, March 20 (AP)—The week-old verbal battle between Gloria Vanderbilt Stokowski and her mother continued today with Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt saying: "Nothing Gloria can do to me will affect my love for her. I cannot believe she will continue to continue to crucify me with those callous remarks."

Russians Firm on Korean Question

Soviet Is Determined That Country Remains Friendly to the U.S.S.R.

Seoul, March 20 (UPI)—The Soviet Union bluntly stated its aims in Korea at the opening of the joint American-Russian Commission today and charged "there is furious resistance" to Korean democracy "by reactionary and anti-democratic groups."

Col. Gen. Terence Shptykov, Russian occupation commander in northern Korea, replied to the welcoming address of Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, American commander in southern Korea, with: "The Soviet Union has a keen interest in Korea being a true democratic and independent country, friendly to the Soviet Union so that in the future it will not become a base for an attack on the Soviet Union."

Shptykov did not identify the reactionary groups. Whether the heavy-set veteran of the western front referred only to factions in the American zone was obscured by lack of information on the political situation in the Russian sector.

Hodge had said: "Results of the work of this commission will prove the ability of two great nations of the world to cooperate fully in capitalizing upon their victory over oppression and despotism and to restore a less fortunate, long oppressed nation to independent, sovereign status."

Both Shptykov and Hodge predicted a amicable settlement of the Korean problem. A January conference of Soviet-American forces was considered a failure by American authorities.

Prune O'Dwyer Bill

Albany, N. Y., March 20 (UPI)—A bill providing for a New York City tax on race tracks equal to one-fourth of their share of the pari-mutuel pool has been eliminated from Mayor William O'Dwyer's tax program by Republican legislative leaders. The bill was the only one of Mayor William O'Dwyer's five tax-raising measures not reported out by the Assembly Rules Committee last night for a floor vote later this week. It will have yielded the city an estimated $2,500,000 a year.

A committee meeting was held Monday night, in the YMCA lounge. Plans for the dance were completed at this time. Music is to be furnished by "Gentlemen of Swing" orchestra. Doors will be open at 8:30 p. m., and the entertainment will end at 1 a. m.

Germans Make BetterRocket Bombs for U. S.

Washington, March 20 (UPI)—The War Department today credited German scientists with helping the U. S. Army develop rocket bombs "more effective than those with which the Nazis bombarded London and other European cities."

In a statement describing the activities of German technicians brought to this country, the Army said most of them are buzz bomb experts. Others are working at undisclosed places on jet-propelled planes and aerodynamic research, and a few are engaged in "several additional fields" of military research.

Suggesting that other German experts are working on American projects abroad, the statement said they are brought to this country "only if their fullest exploitation cannot be carried out in Europe."

The statement said 160 German scientists are here now and 120 more are coming.

Release of this information apparently was prompted by criticism by some American scientists touring in Germany that the United States, by contrast with Russia, was failing to make full use of German talent.

Can Anyone Oblige This Young Maiden?

An English girl who desires a "pen friend" has written a letter to the city clerk, asking that her name and address be given to the newspapers.

The girl, 16 years old, is Sheila Barlow of 19 Kepell road, Sheffield, 6, England.

In her letter she writes: "I would be very pleased if you would kindly advertise my name and address in your papers. My eyes are brown. I am a blonde, height five feet, 16 years old, and of dark complexion, as I want a pen friend."

YMCA to Sponsor Vets' ActivitiesParties and Recreational Functions Mapped Out for Near Future

The first of a series of YMCA veteran-promoted features of social and recreational activities to be handled on a weekly schedule, will be held in the auditorium of the YMCA, Friday night, March 22, it was announced today by Secretary Burton Tandy.

This week's function is to be a dance. Other features, in process of planning by the veterans and those who are assisting them, promise to be of very entertaining quality with plenty of room in the programs for war-time story telling, lobby talks and a close approach to the day room atmosphere that every war vet knows and feels "at home" in.

Friday night's get-together will be in response to suggestions made by 82 YMCA member veterans of World War II, who were present to enjoy the turkey dinner given in their honor, in the same auditorium, the night of January 24. An informal business meeting held at the conclusion of the dinner brought out some ideas said to be worthwhile for entertainment and recreation, which were filed for development and future use.

A committee meeting was held Monday night, in the YMCA lounge. Plans for the dance were completed at this time. Music is to be furnished by "Gentlemen of Swing" orchestra. Doors will be open at 8:30 p. m., and the entertainment will end at 1 a. m.

Germans Make BetterRocket Bombs for U. S.

Baghdad, March 19 (Delayed) (P)—A former Iraq diplomat just returned from Tehran declared to day that "a war of nerves" is being waged in the Iranian capital, with Russian troops contributing to the general state of jitters by "making a lot of noise outside the city gates moving artillery around."

Declaring that the Leftist Tudeh Party could stage a coup d'etat at any time, the informant said: "The great fear in Iran today is that if the Iranians officially announce that they will take the matter to the U. N. O., then the Communists probably will be given the word to strike."

U. N. O. General Secretary Trygve Lie disclosed yesterday in Washington that Iranian Ambassador Hussein Ali already had filed a complaint against Russia on behalf of his government.

It is feared, the informant added, that such a coup "might be worse than the occupation."

Asserting that there "is definitely an exodus from Tehran," the diplomat added:

"You can see it right here from your own hotel in Gaghdad—see the number of Iranians who are arriving from Tehran. . . . They are all going south to Isfahan and Ahwaz."

"There could be truth to the rumor that the Shah has left Tehran for Isfahan."

"An economic panic exists in Iran today," said the informant, "chiefly resulting from the fact that purchases of surplus war materials have drained every dollar out of the country." He added that "the tragedy of this is that persons who have bought American equipment are unable to move it north—meanwhile it is rotting in the sun and rain in dumps in southern Iran and trucks, machinery and other equipment are already half junk."

Talking Turkey

Istanbul, March 19 (Delayed) (P)—U. S. Ambassador Edwin C. Wilson had a long interview yesterday with Turkish Premier Suleyman Saracoglu at Ankara yesterday, causing wide speculation in diplomatic circles. Some quarters were inclined to link the interview with the current situation in Iran.

The Hurley unit of the Home Bureau will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Hurley school Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Following a short business meeting, Miss Belle Northrup of Woodstock will speak on clothing with particular reference to styles and colors. All members are urged to attend.

G.I. Education Aid

Albany, N. Y., March 20 (P)—Governor Dewey recommended to the legislature today that the state underwrite the cost of expanding the facilities of New York's 86 colleges and universities to accommodate an additional 60,000 war veterans seeking higher education. Two bills to achieve this purpose accompanied the governor's special message and were expected to receive prompt approval.

The Rev. Edward V. Winder, new pastor of the Baptist Church, will be in charge of the service, with the Rev. William J. McVey, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, assisting.

The special music for the service, as arranged by Mrs. Lester E. Decker, director of music, includes an offertory anthem, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," Rathbun, by the church choir; a solo, "Into the Woods My Master Went," Nevin by Miss Betty LaTour, and the following organ meditations: "Prelude on the tune 'Martyr,'" by Matthews, "Hymnus" by Cole.

The public is cordially invited to attend the inspiring services Thursday evening.

Rippert and Siegel Are Elected in Political TurnLegislature Will Adjourn Next Week

Albany, N. Y., March 20 (P)—The Legislature will adjourn next Tuesday or Wednesday, Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck announced today.

Heck said he and other Republican legislative leaders had agreed it would be impossible to adjourn Saturday night, as originally scheduled.

It was explained that a flood of bills and inability of printers to keep abreast were major factors in the decision to continue the session into next week.

Goering Admits Anti-Semitism

No. 2 Nazi Bares Wholesale Decrees Aimed at Destroying Jews

Nuernberg, March 20 (P)—Hermann Goering told the International Military Tribunal today that he had signed numerous anti-Jewish decrees as president of the Reichstag and "I assume full responsibility" for them.

In the witness box for the sixth day in his own defense, the former Reichsmarschall declared that both Joseph Goebbels and Heinrich Himmler were more radical than himself on the Jewish question.

He said defendant Julius Streicher was violently anti-Jewish, but dismissed him as "not a member of the government and although he was a gauleiter he had no influence on the government."

It was explained that the government had been given precedence over penal courts in trying Nazis for anti-Jewish excesses; that party courts were instructed to prevent publicity of the fact that Nazis were instructed to start such disorders and that only minor punishments were imposed for slapping Jews.

Declaring that the Leftist Tudeh Party could stage a coup d'etat at any time, the informant said: "The great fear in Iran today is that if the Iranians officially announce that they will take the matter to the U. N. O., then the Communists probably will be given the word to strike."

"An economic panic exists in Iran today," said the informant, "chiefly resulting from the fact that purchases of surplus war materials have drained every dollar out of the country." Saugerties Prepares for Big Industrial and Business Boom

Alterations Are Being Made to the Former R.C.A. Plant to Meet G.E. Needs

Expansion Plans

Await Normal Flow of Building and Housing Material

Like thousands of other American communities, the incorporated village of Saugerties awaits only the return of the normal flow of building and housing materials to enjoy a real postwar industrial and business boom.

You get that impression when you walk down the main street and stop at the corner of Main and Exchange to trade verbal patter with some of the leading citizens. There is a tense feeling of anticipation—the feeling that Saugerties is going to step out and become a thriving community in the not too distant future.

The big reason, of course, is the lease of the former R.C.A. building by the General Electric Company of Schenectady for transference of part of the G.E.'s vast manufacturing program to Saugerties. The deal was reported consummated last Saturday at a meeting between Henry Knauth, of the bushwhack firm, and G.E. representatives.

The rumors and speculation attending a small town boom are rife in Saugerties. Everywhere you go, you are bombarded with a wild variety of rumors, some of them bordering on the fantastic. One report says G.E. will employ 600 persons.

Meanwhile, General Electric officials are maintaining an iron-clad blackout on all news pertaining to the Saugerties plant.

Alterations at Plant

Improvements and alterations are being effected at a feverish pace at the new G.E. outlet, but it's next to impossible to ascertain such salient factors as:

1. The date when General Electric expects to transfer part of its personnel and industry to Saugerties.

2. The type of product G.E. will specialize in at the new plant. (G.E. manufactures more than 20,000 appliances in the electrical field.)

3. The number of men who will transfer from other General Electric plants to Saugerties.

4. What arrangements have been completed for housing and sustaining the new influx of citizens.

The three men prominently identified in the negotiations with Knauth Brothers in clinching the G.E. deal—Mayor Franklin P. Clum, president of the Chamber of Commerce, John C. Sauer, and Chamber Secretary George I. DuBois—had little information to volunteer when interviewed by a Freeman reporter early this week.

All three are quite enthusiastic about the transfer of G.E. business to Saugerties, but for the time being are maintaining strict silence on details. If there is any official information, they said, it will have to come from company representatives.

The man and woman on the Saugerties streets isn't that reticent. They translate the transfer into terms of business and industrial boom. The grocers, butchers, bakers, tavern keepers, theatre, storekeepers and bowling alley proprietors view the industrial renaissance in terms of cold cash. It will mean more business and they're aiming to get some of it.

Newberry Expands

With expansion in mind, the J. J. Newberry five and ten chain has purchased a large building in which its present establishment is housed for necessary expansion. The building was purchased from Michael Iannotti of Saugerties. Improvements and alterations will proceed in a short time. The deal is significant of the trend of the times.

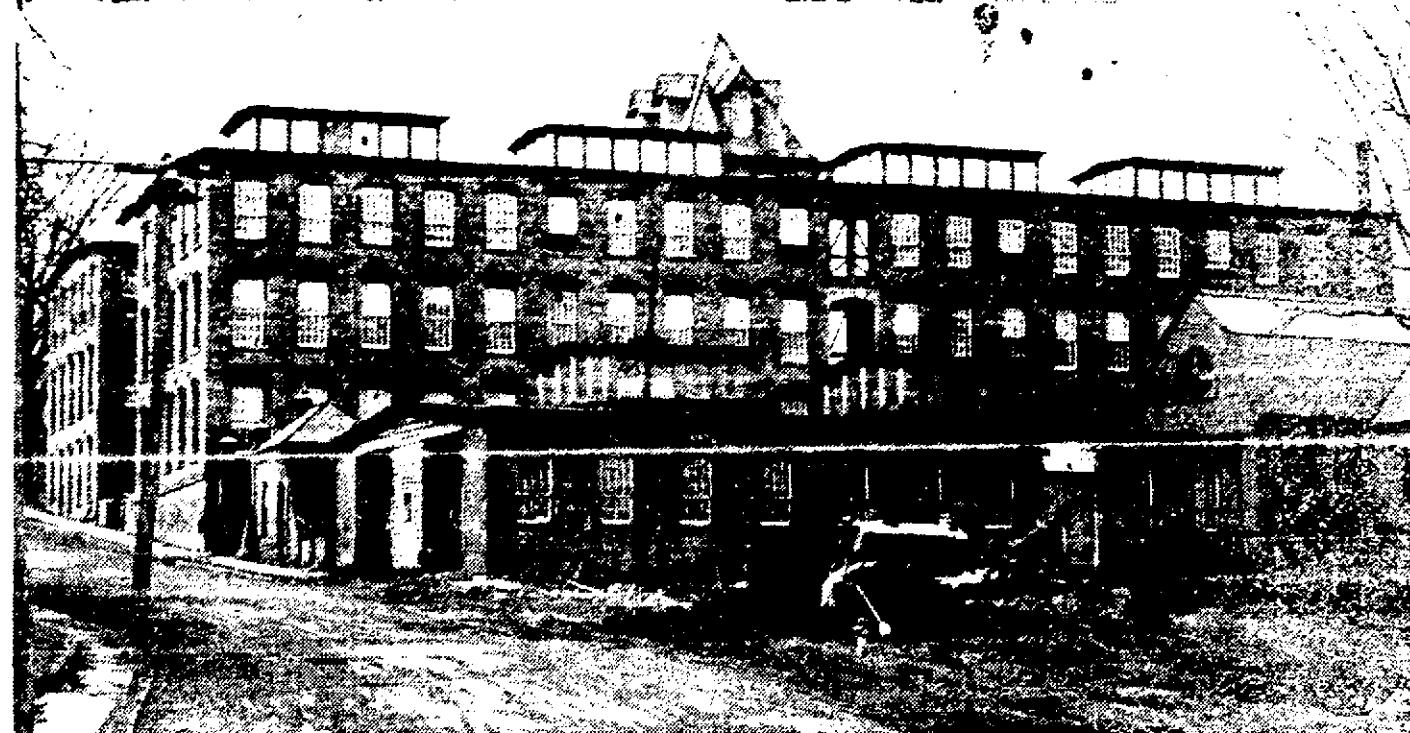

John C. Sauer, real estate tycoon who controls a vast amount of property in the town of Saugerties and nearby communities and should know the answer to the $64 question of the day, "Where are the new people going to be housed?"

"We're tied hand and foot by the lack of building materials," Mr. Sauer told the Freeman reporter. "As soon as the materials start coming through, we look for a real housing boom, but I guess you can say that for almost any community in America."

"We realize that it's going to be quite a problem. As a matter of fact, we are in the process of making arrangements for buildings to be put up in the Saugerties area. We are in the process of getting the necessary permits and we will take care of them."

Did Mr. Sauer know how many new G.E. workers are going to Saugerties? "I don't know," he said. "We are in the process of making the necessary arrangements with the G.E. people. They have been told. They are to be housed in the town of Saugerties."

Asked whether he would man-

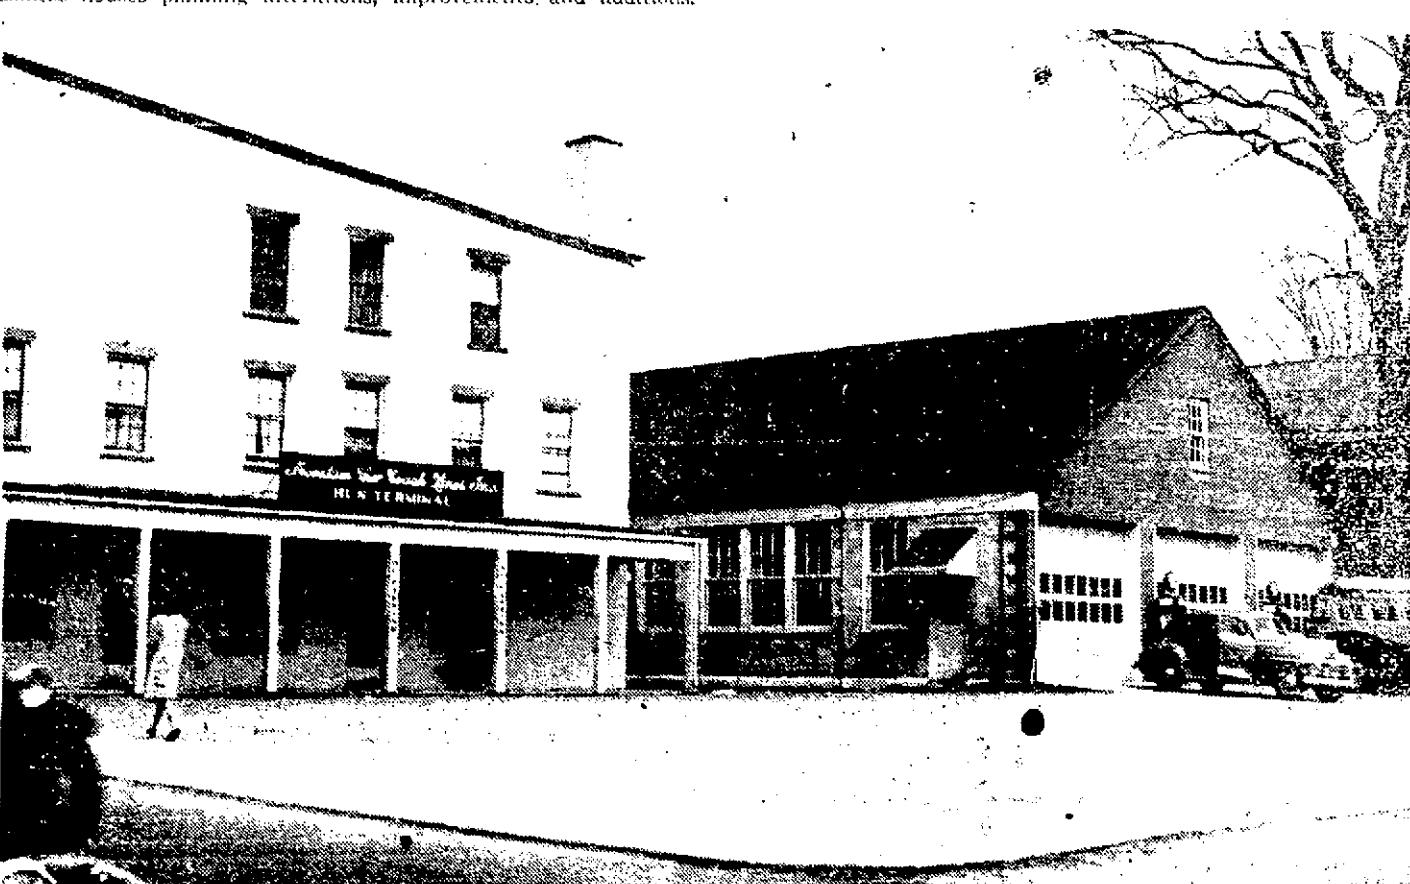

HOME OF POSSIBLE G.E. PLANT

When and if the General Electric Auxiliary plant locates in Saugerties it will occupy the building that housed the R.C.A. operations during the war. A large, spacious structure, it will meet all G.E. requirements.

CROSSROADS OF SAUGERTIES FUTURE

The area around Main and Exchange streets, the "Times Square" of the village, is due for a virtual face-lifting job, with numerous business houses planning alterations, improvements, and additions.

BUS TERMINAL MODERN STYLE

Saugerties is well-equipped to handle a steady flow of modern bus traffic. The Mountain View terminal built on the old Maxwell House site services virtually all major bus routes in eastern New York.

Saugerties to Be Represented By Strong Semi-Pro Nine

Possible Hudson Valley League Franchise to Be Considered by Returning Vets

Saugerties will be represented by a strong semi-pro baseball team during the 1946 season if the job were offered him. Cahill replied that was a matter for the directors of the Recreation Commission to decide.

"I'm willing to go along as I have in the past few years," he said of the new organization wanting him. "In any event, I will do everything possible to help base ball recover its pristine glories in Saugerties."

A possible Hudson Valley League franchise is being considered, he said, pending the first meeting of the recreation commission and was under study for the past few years.

George M. Cahill, 41, former manager of the Saugerties baseball club, is considered by the Recreation Commission which is headed by Holly Clemons. Any request for a franchise would have to be voted upon by the group. As of now, no definite plans have been made. The new team will be organized and spring training of the new team will begin in April.

Asked whether he would man-

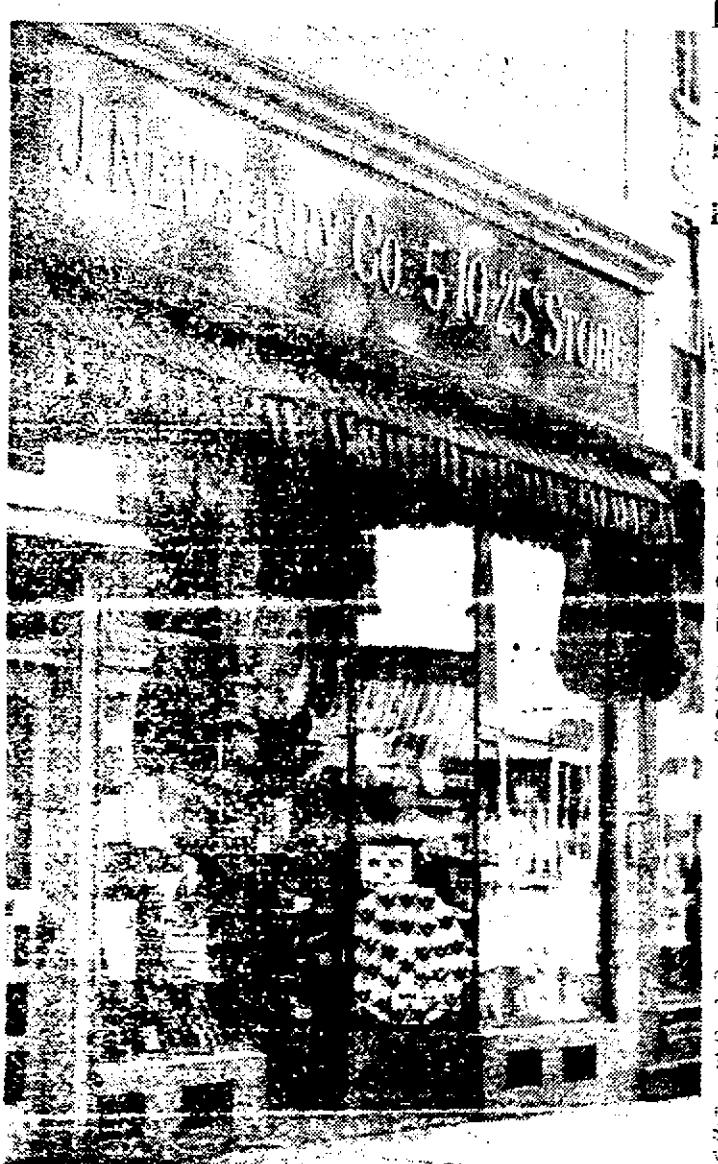

SAUER BRIGHT FUTURE

State Senator P. Clum of the village of Saugerties envisions a bright future for his constituency if the G.E. deal is clinched and building materials are soon available.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SECRETARY

George I. DuBois, secretary of the Saugerties Chamber of Commerce, is principally occupied as compositor for the Saugerties Post. He expects big news soon.

SIGN OF EXPANSION

The J. J. Newberry Co. has purchased the building in which it is now located and plans immediate expansion. The building was purchased from Michael Iannotti.

New Draft Rules Won't Affect Village

Only six county draft registrants are affected by the recently revised directives of Selective Service. Ulster County Draft Board officials in Saugerties said yesterday.

"We have stayed pretty rock-bottom all the way," a board spokesman said yesterday. The new rules hardly affect us."

The next county quota is scheduled for April 2, when men will make the trip to the induction center.

School System Is Able to Take Care Of All Students

Increases in Enrollment Will Not Overtax Any Institutions When G.E. Arrives

The Saugerties School System will be able to absorb any increase in students that may be effected by the possible transfer of General Electric personnel, Superintendent of Schools Gran B. Morse said yesterday.

"Our present arrangements are adequate to absorb a large number of new students," he said. "We won't worry about it until the time arrives."

Superintendent said that about 25 Saugerties youths have taken advantage of the G.I. Bill of Rights educational benefits and have resumed their college studies.

The first half championship of the Saugerties A Men's Bowling League will be decided Sunday afternoon at the Saugerties Academy, when Grand Union opposes Hiramians. The teams stand up in a tie in the final half standing and the roll off will be conducted under the rules and regulations of the American Bowling Congress.

Ben Fein's Liquor Store keglers, 1944-1945 champions of the Saugerties Mixed Bowling League, have clinched the first half title in the current race. The second half gets under way this week.

Fein's squad swept both halves last season. Members of the team are Ben Fein, captain; Al Ricketson, Will Coons, John Teetzel, Mrs. William Coons and Mrs. Al Saunders.

Fein Predicts Big Interest This Year in Softball Game

Eight-Team League Is Planned for Spirited Competition in Summer Play

Saugerties will have a crack eight-team softball league this season, Ben Fein, former Kingston cothier now operating a liquor store, said yesterday.

"There is a lot of local interest after a two-year lull due to the war," Fein said. "And we feel the General Electric workers may be some good softball players in the group."

Fein was president of the Saugerties softball circuit for two years prior to its discontinuance due to the war. A meeting is scheduled in the near future.

Garbage Removal Proposition Loses At Polls, 189-94

Saugerties voters by a margin of better than 2 to 1 Tuesday defeated a proposition for municipal garbage removal. The vote was 189 to 94 against the proposal.

The three incumbent village trustees—Henry York, John C. Sauer and Frank M. Hughes—were virtually unopposed for reelection a two-year term. A few write-in votes were recorded.

A total of 905 votes were cast in the general elections, but a large majority of the electorate failed to ballot on the garbage removal proposition.

A BUILDING BOOM IF

President John C. Sauer, of the Saugerties Chamber of Commerce, has no doubt about the village industrial and rebuilding boom when materials are available.

New York State Department of small business campaign went into its fourth week, M. P. Catherwood, commerce commissioner, announced today. Dewey's small business expansion program as the state-sponsored veterans and others in the state make up for the 100,000 small businesses that closed during the war.

Already 94 local small business advisory committees, composed of business-leaders, have been or-

Another 36 are in the process of organization to make the program effective at the local level.

Tabulation of requests received by the State Department of Commerce show that of the total received 50 per cent came from veterans, 27 per cent represented persons already in business, 18 per cent former war workers and the remaining five per cent from miscellaneous sources.

Teachers Discuss Salary Raises

and spokesman for the group although during the evening several of the teachers spoke, including the presidents of both groups.

Teachers Ask for Report

Mr. Martocci opened the discussion stating that on January 24 the Kingston Teachers' Federation submitted a proposal for increase and had been informed that the matter was under advisement by a special committee of the board. No further action was taken and the teachers recently said had heard rumors of adoption of the single salary schedule. Thus, without knowledge as to what the schedule might be, we said had confused the teachers and as a result he had suggested a meeting with the board to discuss the matter.

Mr. Feeney asked if the teachers had any facts to "back-up" the proposals of January 24 and Mr. Martocci stated that there was no argument needed for support of the request for an increased salary other than the high cost of living. What the teachers wanted was an adequate and equitable salary schedule so they might properly support their families in this period of high costs. It was pointed out that a poll had been taken in grade schools on the single salary schedule by one of the teachers. However, Mr. Martocci said no teacher could decide whether a single salary schedule as proposed by the board would be satisfactory unless the schedule was known.

Whole Board on 'Big Matter'
Mr. Feeney stated that as a rule salary matters would be decided by the teachers' committee but the demands of the teachers now for a general 20 per cent increase in pay was a "big matter" and therefore the entire board had been called in to sit as a committee of the whole. He said various schedules from other cities had been received and studied and at a meeting Monday evening the board had formulated a proposed schedule which would be further discussed and completed when additional facts were at hand. The trend it was found was toward single salary schedules. This means, he said, equal training draws equal pay. However, the board had taken no action either on the proposed schedule or the single salary proposal.

Talks About Taxes
Talking figures, Mr. Feeney said that the present cost of living bonus given teachers amounted to about 8 per cent increase in salary. In addition the federation was asking for an additional 20 per cent increase. This increase would mean a $4.25 increase in the school tax since for each additional $23,000 raised by direct taxation on real property the tax rate goes up over $1 per $1,000 of assessment.

The matter of an increase in state money next year was brought up by the teachers who stated on Monday night they had been informed by Senator Wicks that the city would get $57,000 in additional state money next year under a new plan. This direct benefit would be used for salaries and school room work. Under the schedule which was in effect this year the increase from the state for teachers, Mr. Feeney said, would be $17,000 and not $57,000 unless some change not known now was effective.

Want Immediate Relief

Speaking for the teachers Mr. Martocci said the teachers were concerned in immediate relief rather than a long range plan. Present high living costs made it necessary that increases be granted for next year in such an amount as to permit the teachers to meet the present day cost of living. Mr. Martocci said the proposed plan appeared to be a step in the right direction but stated there could be no decision by the teachers until the plan was definitely made known. The single salary schedule could not be endorsed until its provisions were made known to the teachers, Mr. Martocci said.

"If the figures of Senator Wicks are correct, the city would not have to raise $1.25 by direct taxation," Mr. Martocci said, in speaking of the tax rate increase mentioned by Mr. Feeney as being required if the 20 per cent increase in salary were granted.

Cities Building Program

Mr. Feeney replied that a building program was being undertaken and a considerable amount of money would be required for sites and architect fees next year. He said it would mean more than $57,000 for improvements to the system.

Mr. Martocci replied that the teachers were in favor of improvements to the school system but none of the expected $57,000 could be used for such work since it was designed for salaries and "school room work."

Mr. Feeney replied that if this money was used for salaries, it would mean that an equal amount would have to be raised for building purposes and this would be reflected in a higher tax rate.

At this point Mr. Feeney pointed out that since 1941 the teachers have been given increases which amount to 25.9 per cent and he asked whether the teachers would be willing to settle for the difference between this 25.9 per cent and the amount of the average demands of about 30 per cent being sought in industry. To this Mr. Martocci replied that in 1941 the teachers' salaries in Kingston were "sub-standard" and many had at that time found it necessary to go out and get outside work in order to meet the cost of living.

Opinion on Breaking Union

During the discussion it was stated by Mr. Martocci that there was an opinion that the present situation existing in the grade schools regarding the single salary schedule was an attempt to bring about disunity in the Federation and "break up the union."

After considerable discussion in which several of the teachers took part it was stated that there was "no opposition to the single salary schedule in principle" but before any approval of the plan could be given by the teaching groups, the matter would have to be presented.

Mr. Feeney stated there was no definite schedule now prepared but among the plans suggested was one calling for a maximum of $2,900 for three years training, $3,000 for four years training and $3,100 for five years training.

Cook Suggests Survey

Trustee Cook suggested additional figures be sought from towns in a similar position as Kingston before any definite schedule is made up and it was stated that when such figures were received and a proposed schedule was gotten out by the Board it would be submitted to the two teaching groups for their inspection.

Mr. Martocci said the teachers, many of whom were taxpayers, were not interested in the tax rate so much as they were in the adoption of a decent salary schedule and he said he believed the people of the city were also interested in seeing the teachers get proper pay.

One teacher suggested that improvements to the school system had long been made "at the expense of the teachers."

Mr. Feeney also pointed out that by 1949 the two per cent debt limitation would also apply to school funds and he said this would mean hardship unless assessments were increased or some method worked out to give local relief.

In closing Mr. Feeney said the Board wanted a schedule of pay for teachers which was comparable to other similar cities but he said the tax rate could not go too high. The 20 per cent increase now sought by the teachers together with the present cost of living bonus would mean a tax rate $4 or $5 above our present $13.84 rate and further increases if the building program was to be undertaken.

Picking out a specific case of a teacher who was present, Trustee Leech pointed out that this teacher had received an increase of $8.75 a week for a 40 week year, which he said was a considerable increase.

Before closing Mr. Martocci asked the Board to consider a $300 increment increase this year.

Proposal Submitted

Following are the proposals submitted by the Kingston Teachers' Federation for the school year 1946-47.

Proposal I

That the minimum and maximum classifications for all teachers in the Kingston School System be raised as follows:

Elementary Level-$1,700 minimum; $2,325 maximum.

Secondary Level-$2,400 minimum; $2,900 maximum.

These classifications represent an approximate increase of Twenty (20) per cent over the present salary schedules.

Proposal II

That the base pay of each teacher for the school year 1946-47 be increased Twenty (20) per cent. This proposal takes into consid-

are available. The town is due to get a virtual face lifting.

Rumor About Knausts

One rumor being given wide circulation is that Knaust Brothers will erect low-cost houses for the new workers. Knausts have the land and materials to complete such a housing program, it is reported. The Knaust firm could not be reached for an official verification of these reports, but are reported maintaining the same official silence as Saugerties town officials.

George I. DuBois, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, said Saugerties is more excited over the G.E. deal than anything in recent history.

"Everybody feels pretty good about the whole thing," he said. "It's going to mean extra business and atmosphere for the town. As soon as the lumber situation loosens up, we're looking for a big building boom. We aim to keep the G. E. plant here as long as we can, and the whole town is backing the proposition."

Did Mr. DuBois know any definite details? Not a single one.

Mayor Franklin P. Clum answered a point-blank question with a laconic "I don't know." He was referring to specific details regarding the G. E. transaction.

Mayor Clum, who operates a

Streets Not Listed

The Common Council was asked to authorize bonds in the amount of $95,000 for street improvements. The request did not list streets proposed to be improved and did not give any estimate of cost. Why the mystery? Why should the mayor hold this information as a top secret? Certainly before a legislative body acts upon any proposal it should have the necessary information to vote intelligently. The sole issue was: Should there be a specification of how the $95,000 was to be spent? Are not our people entitled to know where their money is to be spent? What more reasonable demand could the Republican minority have made?

We agree with the Mayor's admission on the radio that the streets of Kingston are in a terrible condition. They are in their present sorry state because during the past four years he has grossly failed properly to maintain the streets while the County Highway Department, the cities of Newburgh and Poughkeepsie were spending thousands of dollars on street maintenance programs.

When Mayor Edelmann assumed office on January 1st, 1942, the streets of Kingston were left by the previous Republican administration in the best condition in the history of our City. These fine streets have deteriorated beyond description during Mayor Edelmann's administration. His own negligence produced the horrible conditions which he describes. The Republican party has built mile upon mile of fine streets and they are now in favor of fine streets.

They will support any sound, intelligent, fully explained plan for the restoration of our streets to the highest standards of excellence but they cannot, and will not, vote in the dark.

Two of every seven pedestrians killed in motor vehicle traffic accidents are 65 years of age or over.

Wildcats Must Halt Rams' Ernie Calverley Who Scored 27 Points in Last Tilt

New York, March 20 (AP)—Rhode Island State's doughty band of cagers who already have upset the doped bucket twice in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament have been made longshots again for their championship match with Kentucky's smooth five in Madison Square Garden tonight.

The oddsman are favoring Kentucky by 8½ points a fact which is far from displeasing to Ernie Calverley and his wild-running mates. Last team to be picked for the tourney, the Rams advanced to the final round by upsetting Bowling Green and Muhlenberg.

Play Justifies Rating

The Wildcats, who never got beyond the semi-final stage of the eight-team tourney before, were top-seeded this time and their play to date has justified their high rating. But to win, Kentucky will have to stop Calverley.

Hero of the 18,000 plus crowds who have jammed the Garden for all games so far, the slim, 145-pound Dead-Eye Dick has accumulated 43 points in his two contests and seems a cinch to win the most valuable player prize of the all-events to qualify.

This situation poses the question of the returned veteran. It was next to impossible for these fellows to roll nine games. Some were lucky to have been able to roll 5-man. It was only through the magnanimous gesture of Ad Jones that we were able to appear in a 5-man lineup. As later events proved, we should have "stood" in bed, but at least Mr. Jones' heart was in the right place.

We feel that Johnny Schatzel should get some recognition for having rolled the highest single in the tournament. In ordinary times, we would overlook it, but he happens to be a war veteran and a victim of circumstances. We leave the type of recognition to the better discretion of the Kingston Bowling Association.

Hot Pennant Race Is Predicted for American Circuit

Earl Hilligan Refrains From Picking Winner but Says Yankees Pack Strength

Chicago, March 20 (AP)—The spring's first baseball robin, American League Town Crier Earl Hilligan, today predicted a "hot first division scrap" in the junior circuit—with due respect for the New York Yankees' current rampage.

League publications, which bounded from camp to camp in Florida since the start of the training season, cagily refrained from picking a 1946 winner although he admitted the Yanks, winning 18 of 22 exhibition starts, strongly resembled some of Joe McCarthy's pre-war creations.

Lest anyone think another Goliath Frankenstein will tear the American League limb from limb this summer, Hilligan hastened to stress that the Boston Red Sox, Detroit Tigers, Cleveland Indians and Washington Senators would not be babes in the woods.

About the Philadelphia Athletics, Hilligan had little to say while he pleaded off discussing the St. Louis Browns and the Chicago White Sox because they are flexing their muscles in far off California.

As for the Tigers who have appeared anything but world champions, he said:

"Don't forget that the old Yankees used to dog it around the grape-fruit league when it didn't cost them anything to lose, and then when the season started they knocked everybody's brains out."

The U.S.L.T.A.'s Davis Cup Committee of Management has adopted the following schedule of play:

To Broadcast Fight

The 10-round, non-title return match between Tippy Larkin of Garfield, N. J., and Nick Moran, Mexican welterweight, will be broadcast over WJZ-A.B.C. Friday, March 22, at 10 o'clock. Don Dunphy and Bill Corum will handle the airing.

At the track almost every day, supervising sales, handling the money and keeping records.

During this time 90,315 separate war bonds were purchased, with actual collections in excess of $3,500,000, all of which was handed without the loss of a dollar. An average of 633 bonds was sold every day during the days the committee was active.

Mr. Kniffin also was executive chairman of the war bond drives in the village of Rockville Centre during the war, in which $3,738 bonds, valued at $20,851,775 were sold.

Mr. Kniffin, president of the Rockville Center Trust Co., was selected for the honor because of the remarkable record of civic leadership and for more than 25 years has been a member of the Nassau County Boy Scout Council. He is the author of several books on banking and has been a teacher at both New York and Rutgers universities.

Kurowski's Balk At Contract May Result in Trade

St. Petersburg, Fla., March 20

—The holdout of George Kurowski, crack Cardinals third baseman, is beginning to look like the real article, and it would not be surprising if he were sold or traded shortly to another National League club.

The pattern is correct. President Sam Breadon of the Cards is beginning to appear irritated when Kurowski's name comes up. In the past that has proved a pretty accurate sign that some St. Louis player was about to change uniforms.

Kurowski, who led the Cards in hitting last year with a .323 average and is one of the best third-basemen playing today, is serious in his intention of not playing for the team again at the sort of pay he has been receiving. He said as much right after the '45 season ended.

It is generally thought his contract last year called for approximately $10,000. It is known he was offered an increase, but it must not have been nearly enough.

St. Louis probably could scrape along without Kurowski and still win the pennant, though its third-basing would not be of as high caliber as it has enjoyed. At the present time, speedy Al Schoenfeld and Ervin Dusak are taking turns playing the position in exhibitions games.

Russians Firm on Korean Question

Soviet Is Determined That Country Remains Friendly to the U.S.S.R.

Seoul, March 20 (UPI)—The Soviet Union bluntly stated its aims in Korea at the opening of the joint American-Russian Commission today and charged "there is furious resistance" to Korean democracy "by reactionary and anti-democratic groups."

Col. Gen. Terenty Shlykov, Russian occupation commander in southern Korea, replied to the welcoming address of Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, American commander in southern Korea, with:

"The Soviet Union has a keen interest in Korea being a true democratic and independent country, friendly to the Soviet Union so that in the future it will not become a base for an attack on the Soviet Union."

Shlykov did not identify the reactionary groups. Whether the heavy-set veteran of the western front referred only to factions in the American zone was obscured by lack of information on the political situation in the Russian sector.

Hodge had said:

"Results of the work of this commission will prove the ability of two great nations of the world to cooperate fully in capitalizing upon their victory over oppression and despotism and to restore a less fortunate, long oppressed nation to independent, sovereign status."

Both Shlykov and Hodge predicted an amicable settlement of the Korean problem. A January conference of Soviet-American officers was considered a failure by American authorities.

Prune O'Dwyer Bill

Albany, N. Y., March 20 (UPI)—A bill providing for a New York City tax on race tracks equal to one-fourth of their share of the pari-mutuel pool has been eliminated from Mayor William O'Dwyer's tax program by Republican legislative leaders. The bill was the only one of Mayor William O'Dwyer's five tax-raising measures not reported out by the Assembly Rules Committee last night for a floor vote later this week. It will have yielded the city an estimated $2,500,000 a year.

A committee meeting was held Monday night, in the Y.M.C.A. lounge. Plans for the dance were completed at this time. Music is to be furnished by "Gentlemen of Swing" orchestra. Doors will be opened at 8:30 p. m., and the entertainment will end at 1 a. m.

Germans Make Better Rocket Bombs for U. S.

Washington, March 20 (UPI)—The War Department today credited German scientists with helping the U. S. Army develop rocket bombs "more effective than those with which the Nazis bombarded London and other European cities."

In a statement describing the activities of German technicians brought to this country the Army said most of them are buzz bomb experts. Others are working at undisclosed places on jet-propelled planes and aerodynamic research, and a few are engaged in "several additional fields of military research."

The statement said 160 German scientists are here now and 120 more are coming.

Release of this information apparently was prompted by criticism by some American scientists touring in Germany that the United States, by contrast with Russia, was failing to make full use of German talent.
